

IIT Bombay – Spoken Tutorial

Spoken tutorial is multi-award winning educational content portal. Spoken Tutorial Provides multi-lingual courses ensure that anybody with a computer and a desire for learning can learn from any place, at any time and in a language of their choice. It is an audio-videos tool that teaches Open Source Software. All the guidance given by team at IIT Bombay.

The course is designed for individual self-learning without the need of an expert. Once students download videos tutorials from website and installed in the systems, learning can be offline so internet is not needed.

The main advantage of this method is that no special infrastructure is required and hence it lends to collaborative document development.

Spoken Tutorial provides study material in digital content and it is available in three levels as Basic, Intermediate and Advanced. While watching the digital content they also provide side-by-side practice thereby ensuring that learners are actively learning.

Faculty in institutes can organize their batch of students into groups, who will learn a particular software course for an entire semester. If the academic timetable permits, then a single student can learn up to 3 different ST courses in one semester during the designated academic Lab hours.

End-of-Course online tests and certificates are available for those who wish to test their expertise in particular software. These certificates give an edge to students during placement by increasing their employability potential.
